

Wednesday 3 December 2008

4:00 pm Registration

7:00 pm Opening Reception

Thursday 4 December 2008

7:30 am Breakfast

8:30 am Is there a Funding Gap?—Panel and Debate

There are more device companies being launched and more venture dollars available than ever before. However, given the recent turmoil in the financial markets, funding companies all the way through to exit may become harder than ever. In this session, we look at the current financing climate for device start-ups.

Prof. Dr. Ulrich Abshagen, Founding Managing Partner, Heidelberg Innovation

Tim Haines, Partner, Abingworth

Tim Lenihan, CEO, MD Start

Berthold Hackl, CEO, invendo medical

Joel Marcus, CEO, Alexandria Real Estate Equities

Moderator: Antoine Papiernik, Sofinnova

9:45 am Refreshment Break

10:15 am Regulatory and Reimbursement Compliance Issues Affecting Global Companies

This interactive panel discussion among senior industry regulatory and compliance executives explores the current regulatory and reimbursement compliance challenges facing the device community. It includes case studies of high profile calamities identifying the root causes of concern and subsequent remediation requirements worldwide.

Sarah Sorrel, President, MedPass

Myriam Desmet, Head of Clinical & Regulatory Affairs, Vexim

Donna M. Hill, VP, Associate General Counsel, Cardinal Health Medical Products & Technologies

Moderator: Steve Osei-Mensah, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

11:30 am Clinical Markets Panels

In these sessions, we will explore the technological and commercial opportunities and challenges for three of the device industry's most important segments: Orthopedics, Cardiovascular, and Neuromodulation.

SESSION I—ORTHOPEDIC PANEL AND DEBATE

Vincent Lefaucounier, CEO, Vexim

Steve Foster, VP Spine & Biologics/Western Europe, Medtronic

John Dougall, ex-VP Strategic Relations of DePuy International (a Johnson & Johnson Company)

Moderator: Bruce de la Grange, previously of Plus Orthopedics/Smith & Nephew

12:45 pm Luncheon

1:45 pm Awardee Spotlight: A conversation with the 2008 Company of the Year Award winner

The logo features the year '2008' in a blue, sunburst-like font, with the word 'Bohemian' in a brown, cursive script font. Below this, the words 'MEDICAL DEVICE SUMMIT' are written in a brown, all-caps, serif font.

2008 Bohemian
MEDICAL DEVICE SUMMIT

3:00 pm Clinical Markets Panels (continues)

SESSION 2—NEUROMODULATION PANEL AND DEBATE

Stephen McCormack, CEO, Intelligent Medical Implants AG

Khalid Ishaque, General Manager Neuromodulation Int., Boston Scientific Int. S.A

Paul Pyzowski MBA, CEO and co-founder, Aleva Neurotherapeutics

Moderator: Casey McGlynn, Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati

4:15 pm Refreshment Break

4:45 pm SESSION 3—CARDIOLOGY PANEL AND DEBATE

Jaques Seguin, Chairman of the Board, CoreValve

Gonzague Issenmann, CEO, Stentys

Tor Peters, CEO, NOLabs

Dr. David Foley, Consultant Cardiologist — Beaumont Hospital

Michael Buck, Director of Business Development, Abbott Laboratories

Moderator: Steven Levin, Windhover

7:00 pm Summit Dinner

Friday 5 December 2008

7:30 am Breakfast

8:30 am Chinese Panel

China with its huge populations and vast resources has long been viewed as a potentially valuable market. In the last couple of years we have seen China really emerge as a land of promise and opportunity. In this panel, we will look at the burgeoning market for medical devices and device start-ups in China.

Bill McKeon, CEO, Starbridge

Ty Hu, President, Innomed

Antoine Papiernik, Managing Partner, Sofinnova

Moderator: David Cassak, Windhover

9:30 am Exit Panel and Industry Overview

The success of any device company is measured not just in technological or clinical terms, but in commercial terms as well—i.e., is the company generating an attractive return for its investors? But both public offerings and M&A go through ups-and-downs, making the assessment of the exit opportunity sometimes difficult. This panel will explore the current environment for IPOs and M&A.

Erik Baas, Director of Medicine and Technology, Medtronic

Rodney Perkins, Chairman, Sound ID

Maximilian Reindl, Founder and CEO, WaveLight AG

Mark Secrest, Managing Director Investment Banking, Cowen & Co.

Moderator: Tracy Lefteroff, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

11:00 am Refreshment Break

11:30 am VIP Interview with André Michel Ballester, CEO, Sorin Group conducted by David Cassak, Windhover

1:00 pm Luncheon